

I am against removing the ban against cellular phones aboard aircrafts. There is already too much talking on cell phones in the world. We could use some peace and quiet while riding on an airplane.